

Kainan University "Life Convention in Student Residence Hall"

I agree _____ (name) _____ department _____ grade + class _____ (student number) has been approved to live in the student dormitory of the school, and the accommodation period is one academic year according to the regulations Semester + next semester), in addition to paying fees according to regulations during the dormitory period, and willing to obey by the following regulations of the student dormitory.

Based on the interests of accommodation students' groups to ensure the safety of all accommodation students, our student dormitory has formulated the following management measures for compliance. In addition to complying with the provisions of the school rules on student punishment, residents should also comply with the student dormitory management rules.

Key points of student dormitory management:

1. The dormitory of our school implements curfew (00:00~06:00). If you need to return late, please apply according to relevant regulations.
2. Do not enter or leave the dormitory during the curfew, or climb over the wall, climb the window, break the curfew, open the door by yourself, etc.
3. Do not connect wires privately, use electrical appliances not approved by the accommodation service group or cook food in the dormitory.
4. Flammable goods or dangerous and prohibited goods(such as drugs, tobacco and alcohol, gambling tools, gas appliances, etc.) shall not be placed in the dormitory room.
5. Gambling (including playing mahjong), drinking, making noise or causing trouble (fighting) and other illegal behaviors are not allowed in the dormitory.
6. Smoking is not allowed in the public area of the dormitory and in the dormitory. After being found (there is smoke smell in the room or cigarette butts and cigarettes around), the health bureau will be punished and notified of a fine. If you do not listen to the advice twice, you will be disqualified from staying the dormitory.
7. Public property in the dormitory shall not be moved or placed in the dormitory at random
8. Non-resident students are not allowed to stay in the dormitory or take non-resident students into the dormitory.
9. It is not allowed to introduce people to engage in business (selling goods) and preaching activities.
10. No pets are allowed in the dormitory.
11. It is strictly forbidden to change rooms and beds privately, transfer beds to others without permission or replace them with false names.
12. There shall be no violation of public health, residential tranquility or public safety.
13. When the number of rooms is less than the room type, the accommodation service team has the right to change and arrange the room and bed of the residential students.
14. Male boarders are not allowed to enter female boarders' floors and rooms, and female boarders are not allowed to enter male boarders' floors and rooms
15. The room key should be kept properly. If it is lost, the one-night accommodation student should pay 150 dollars and the two-night accommodation student should pay 50 dollars.
16. Accommodation students carry access cards and keys when entering and leaving the dormitory. If they do not carry them, they can register for 1 hour and labor service for 1 hour.
17. It is required to comply with the kitchen use specifications, and violators will be punished.
18. The use of public refrigerators shall be observed. The accommodation service team shall not be responsible for keeping the contents of the refrigerator, and shall not object to the loss or discarding of the refrigerator. Those who violate the following refrigerator use regulations will be punished by brushing the refrigerator and one warning. The refrigerator items should be placed in the fresh-keeping box, and the label (room number, name, date of placement) should be pasted on the obvious part of the fresh-keeping box. Opened hand cups, aluminum foil bags, aluminum cans, paper cups, styrofoam cups, plastic cups, etc. cannot be placed in refrigerators. The unsealed bento cannot be placed in the refrigerator. Fresh materials must be sealed and stored with chain clip bags, and then placed in the fresh-keeping box. The dormitory will treat the food materials (including drinks) that are not placed in the fresh-keeping box as waste at any time every day. There is no objection and there is no need to inform through the radio or any platform. Once the label date of the fresh-keeping box exceeds seven days, the items in the box will be discarded without objection. If the refrigerator is damaged due to improper use, it shall be repaired and compensated according to the price.

19. Prohibited articles shall not be placed in public refrigerators, dormitories refrigerators, dormitories and public areas of dormitories. If found during room inspection, the accommodation service team has the right to confiscate and discard them and notify relevant units.
20. When leaving or leaving the dormitory, the dormitory and toilet should be cleaned, and the roommate should coordinate the cleaning work by himself. Only after the dormitory and toilet are cleaned, can the dormitory or leaving the dormitory be handled. If the last person who leaves the dormitory and fails to pass the cleaning, he should clean it by himself or pay 500 yuan for cleaning.
21. Personal and public goods shall not be placed in empty beds. Violators will be charged for extra bed accommodation.
22. When you check in, you need to attach the payment certificate (accommodation fee and difference fee). If you do not attach the payment certificate, you cannot check in.
23. Compliance with the regulations of the public landfill is required. The landfill is open daily from 7:00 AM to 5:00 PM. Waste must be sorted and deposited into designated bins according to their respective categories. Those caught disposing of unsorted waste will be required to assist with sorting for 2 hours upon the first offense. Upon a second offense, a warning will be issued. For those caught a third time, a second warning will be issued along with a requirement to assist with sorting for 3 hours and catching others who fail to sort before being allowed to leave.

All students who live in the dormitory shall comply with the dormitory management regulations of the university and the obligations of the student dormitory life convention. Those who violate the regulations for any reason shall be punished and checked out according to the relevant regulations (disqualification of accommodation). Before leaving the dormitory, the dormitory shall be cleaned up, and the public property in the dormitory shall be checked and found to be correct (if there is any damage, compensation shall be paid according to the price). After the confirmation and inspection of the accommodation service team, the key can be turned in before leaving the dormitory.
